Royal Palm Marrakech Beachcomber

True visionary luxury

The Royal Palm Marrakech embraces a style of architecture directly inspired by the Berber culture, with echoes of Mauritanian touches, a reference to its roots.

Private villas and suites are dotted among a centuries-old olive grove with the snowcapped Atlas Mountains in the background. Shadow and light playfully interact with spectacular scenery. Enjoy highly personalized attention and 4 delicious restaurants run by the highly talented Chef Philippe Jourdin, who has already received several stars for his cuisine. The Beachcomber Group has set the bar for luxury very high for its first location outside of the Indian Ocean.

Client well-being is in Clarins hands, a partnership that has lasted for 11 years!

Here again, client expectations are sure to be met when it comes to beauty and relaxation. The 4200 m² spa has 15 treatment rooms, a pool and steam room.

A high-tech sports centre includes personalized coaching, tennis courts and a Pilates yoga studio.

While there, don't forget to take a stroll around the Jemaa el fna plaza or in the shaded alleys of the Majorelle Garden. It would be a shame not to take advantage of the red city's charms.
